Director's Note

Welcome to Rock of Ages: Teen Edition! We could not be more pumped to share this crazy, campy, explosive show with you!

Every show comes with its own unique set of challenges and conditions. For this show, one of these conditions is the cheesy and outrageous nature of the plot. Our cast and team have worked collaboratively to truly embrace the campiness and absurdity of the characters, dialogue, and circumstances.

Although it's a modern classic in its own right, Rock of Ages is also a period piece. This is another aspect of the script that makes the show uniquely challenging. One character you'll meet tonight will describe the time as "mid-to-late eighties, roughly". You'll see this aspect of the production reflected in the show's costumes, set, lighting, and overall design.

We are immensely grateful to the cast and creative team, who brought their heart, passion, and dedication to this project. The integrity of this piece is a reflection of their commitment and hard work. We are also indebted to our cast families. They have supported us and volunteered their time and efforts to help bring this show to the stage.

This is where we usually write about the inspiring and heartfelt message that you'll have the privilege of witnessing. However, as we're sure you'll find, Rock of Ages isn't quite that deep. Instead, we'll invite you to kick back, relax, and have "nothin' but a good time"!

Enjoy the show and rock on!
